BizInsight 7.2 retrieves data from the accounting system and caches it in memory on the client workstation. The memory requirements are dependent upon the amount of data that is returned from the accounting system. More RAM on the workstation may be necessary to ensure optimal product performance.

User Permissions

BizInsight 7.2 must be installed while logged in as the end user. The installation requires administrative rights because a Windows service account ("BizCloud") is created during installation. After installation, the user's permissions can be downgraded. Any action that requires the service to be restarted, such as resetting the login credentials, will require administrative permissions.

Terminal Services/Citrix Environments

Installing BizInsight 7.2 in a Terminal Services/Citrix environment is supported but all data connections across users will be made with the same database credentials. In addition, each user must be configured to point to their own copy of the BizInsight MetaData database (BizInsight.sdf).
